	Superintendent, WCBDD	Board President, WCBDD	Date

It is the philosophy of the Wood County Board of Developmental Disabilities (Board) that individuals with developmental disabilities are capable of community employment. Furthermore, the Board fully supports the Governor's Executive Order 2012-05K for Employment First. Therefore, the Superintendent will be responsible for the development and implementation of collaborative procedures and a person-centered planning process that identifies the unique strengths, interests, abilities, preferences, resources, and desired outcomes as they relate to community employment for each individual receiving Board services.
