The purpose of the Nichols Therapy Pool is to provide an aquatics facility that can be utilized for therapeutic and recreational purposes in a safe manner.

Operated by the Wood County Board of Developmental Disabilities, priority for usage will be given to infants, youth and adults served by the Board. Requests for use by family, staff, community members and groups will also be considered.

Fees will be established by the Board for individuals and groups wishing to utilize the facility. Individuals and groups will be required to sign a hold harmless agreement.

Certified lifeguards shall be present whenever the pool is in use.

The Superintendent or his designee will develop a manual to comply with this policy.
