The following definitions will apply:
Limited Capacity – This applies when a limitation of participants has been determined by either Ohio Special Olympics or Wood County Board of Developmental Disabilities Recreation/Wellness Manager for a Special Olympics event/tournament.
When limited capacity is determined for an event/tournament, it is the policy of Wood County Board of DD that only residents of Wood County and Wood County Special Olympics participants receive consideration to attend the event. The selection process will then follow the stipulations set forth in the Special Olympics Participation Guidelines regarding the return of the designated intent form, attendance at practices, and attitude.
